From the Desk of Rabbi David Wise The Lion's Den

In this climate of intense partisan polarization, I have spoken several times about the need for each side on the political divide to hold their fellow travelers accountable for missteps. On the subject of Antisemitism, this has been the call of Deborah Lipstadt and Bari Weiss in their important and influential books.

In this month's issue of The Rabbi's Nightstand, I want to draw your attention to a book that does the same on the subject of Zionism. That book is The Lion's Den: Zionism and the Left from Hannah Arendt to Noam Chomsky, by Susie Linfield.

Linfield teaches cultural journalism at NYU, and was an editor at The Washington Post and The Village Voice. She places herself firmly in the camp of the left. She is also deeply attached to the idea of Zionism and the State of Israel, and she is not hesitant to be critical of Israeli governmental policy. But in this study of 20th-century intellectual history, Linfield is not hesitant to critique the blind spots of core leftist thinkers in their writings about Israel. "The Left has spent a lot music, as well as musical theatre. He has appeared in venues from Carnegie Hall to Tel Aviv's Mann Auditorium and Vienna's Volkstheater. He has worked with some of the world's leading conductors, including Zubin Mehta, Roger Norrington and Gary Bertini. Rafi studied Chazanut with leading Chazzanim in Israel, the UK and the US and is now himself a teacher of many young Chazzanim. Cantor Frieder was a very dear friend of Mordechai Sobol and has worked very closely with him for many years.

- CANTOR SHAI ABRAMSON (Representative Cantor For the State of Israel)

In 2008, Shai Abramson was appointed Chief Cantor of the Israel Defense Forces and serves as the Representative Cantor for the State of Israel, and participates in formal State occasions and ceremonies. He has performed as Cantor under the auspices of the Knesset, the IDF, the Ministry of Defense, and various other government ministries. Cantor Abramson performs with the most prominent Cantors and musicians of our generation, and participates in prayer services and concerts throughout Israel and the world. Cantor Abramson collaborated with Ofir & Mordechai Sobol and recorded a beautiful video singing the very popular Avinu Shebashamayim composed by Cantor Sol Zim that hit the internet by storm.

of time and intellectual energy trying to solve the Jewish Problem—but it also has one” (p. 9).

Arendt and Chomsky are the most familiar of Linfield’s subjects, but I learned a lot about the thinkers she studies in the interim chapters. They are Arthur Koestler, Maxime Rodinson, Isaac Deutscher, Albert Memmi, Fred Halliday, and I. F. Stone. All of her subjects except for Halliday were Jewish, and all were deeply anti-colonialist and advocates for socialism (and even Marxism). Linfield scoured the complete collection of all of her subjects’ output on Zionism and Israel, and her thorough familiarity enables her to point out contradictions in their writings. She also is not shy about pointing out where a thinker’s statement of certainty conflicts with indisputable facts. Her long opening chapter on Arendt ends this way: “Arendt’s Zionist writings are a model of the pitfalls into which so many commentators of Israel fall: arrogance, ignorance, remoteness, abstractness, and the tendency to see the country, and its conflicts, as a replication of previous histories rather than as uniquely themselves. Arendt never acknowledged these shortcomings; she was not one to admit she was wrong. But [in a letter she once wrote], her words could have served as a fitting self-assessment: ‘People ignore reality in favor of their bright ideas’” (p. 79).

Linfield’s most reverent chapter is reserved for Albert Memmi, the Tunisian Jewish intellectual and anti-colonialist, who supported Tunisian independence but was then forced out of his homeland because of his Jewishness and Zionism. He expected that Israel would become “a secular and socialist beacon” (p. 195). He vocally opposed the Occupation. But he did not consider it Zionism’s existential flaw. Linfield seems in step with Memmi as she writes: “The establishment of a Jewish state has not, of course, vanquished anti-Semitism. How to interpret this failure? For [Maxime] Rodinson, it proved the foolishness of Zionism’s basic goal. For Memmi, the opposite was true. The hatred directed at Israel—from its Arab neighbors, from the Western Left, from anti-Semites on the right—proved the Jewish state’s necessity” (p. 191).

Linfield stakes out a strong position of her own on Zionism, and expresses dismay over the current state of Israeli politics. But instead of writing a book about her counterparts on the other side of the spectrum, she looks inside her own house, as it were, and calls out illogic and inaccuracies where she sees them. In an era when many writers are loathe to be so introspective, this kind of self-reflection is refreshing. As we enter the New Year, a season that calls for introspection and self-reflection, The Lion’s Den is a model for such honest thinking.

Wishing you a year of blessing and peace,

Rabbi David Wise

A REPORT FROM YOUR SISTERHOOD

Shalom!

What fun we had at the Paid-Up Membership Brunch. Judy Greene taught us a lot about Jewish Sex Ethics.

Now it's on to more fun together. First we have a family and community Shabbat Dinner in the Sukkah on October 18th. Please be sure to make your reservations for the Sukkah dinner early - because we can only accommodate about 70 people. It's always a good time and good food.

Our very special Sisterhood Pink Ladies Breast Cancer Walk is at Jones Beach on Sunday October 20th.

Then we have our Torah Fund Brunch on November 3rd where we will be honoring the amazing Laura Brodsky.

Lastly, another activity of double the fun (brunch and shopping). Please plan to join us on Sunday December 1st, from 10 am until 2 pm, for our Chanukah Brunch and Gift Shop Sale. Have a bagel and coffee, and buy your Chanukah (and other) gifts from your Sisterhood. We have some great new items!!

Thanks to all those of you who have joined us already - and for those who have not joined yet, it's never too late. Come join us in all we have planned and bring us your ideas at the next planning meeting.

and Israel at the same time!

Please accept the best wishes of everyone at Sisterhood for a New Year of Peace and Sweetness!

Green Committee

A WORD OF THANKS

Thank you from the Green Team to everyone who continues to donate those little soaps and toiletries that we all bring home from vacation. In the past months we have donated them in large quantity to an emergency food bank in Poughkeepsie where there was a desperate need, and to our Black Hebrew friends in Brooklyn. We have received a lovely letter of thanks from the Fountain Avenue Community Development Corporation and Ninth Tabernacle Beth El, who distributed our donations to domestic violence homeless shelter residents at a community forum in late August.

Hotels are phasing out those little plastic bottles, rightfully. However, while they are still around, we are happy to take them off your hands and pass them on. There are small plastic drawers near the White Chapel where you can leave them (along with old eyeglasses for the Lions' Club). If you need a pick up, please call 917-941-8640.

Thank you for always caring!

CHESED COMMITTEE

Hello!

I hope the Jewish New Year 5780 is off to a good start.

We are securing a date for our speaker to give a well-defined look at immunizations. A must-come-to event! It will be in the Fall, and you will know as soon as we can coordinate our speaker's calendar with ours.

In the meanwhile: Have you ever needed to clean out a room, closet, apartment, or home? It's a job that you, most probably, are not excited to tackle. When I needed to clean out my parent's apartment and looked at the 500 books that had accumulated, I searched many places as to where to donate.

Here are a couple of suggestions:

Operation Paperback- Sends donations to soldiers overseas- Email Chrissy Honeywell - www.chrissy@operationpaperback.org

Better World Books- Sells your donated titles and helps fund literacy initiatives- Google- betterworldbooks.com > go to book donations and scroll to the bottom of the page to EXPLORE- enter your zip code and you will notice many drop-off areas near us.

Housing Works Thrift Shop- Forest Hills- (347) 633-2280

Turn The Page Again- Bayside- (718) 767-2341

I hope this is useful information.

- CANTOR SOL ZIM (Your Cantor) "You know me so well"

We will be serenaded with music of so many genres... Chassidic, Israeli Pop, American Pop, Opera, Yiddish and of course Cantorial. There will be a full (33 piece) symphony.

MAESTRO OFIR SOBOL (son of Mordechai Sobol z'l) will conduct the Concert. Ofir follows in his father's footsteps as being one of the most musically gifted individuals in the world of Jewish music today. He is sought after by musical artists & performers all over the world for his unique and breathtaking arrangements.

This year we are teaming up with TEMPLE ISRAEL OF GREAT NECK and presenting this Concert In Memory of DR./ MAESTRO MORDECHAI SOBOL Z'L. Mordechai was a World Renowned Brilliant Musician, Cantor, Conductor & Composer and a man with exceptional character. He was a very dear friend of mine and we worked closely together musically for over 25 years. Mordechai was also a dear friend of Cantor Rafi Frieder, of Temple Israel of Great Neck, and worked closely with him for many years as well. Cantor Frieder and his synagogue are working with us to present this concert in Mordechai Sobol's memory.

 All are welcome to join for noshes/dessert following the Concert

Remember...Sunday, NOVEMBER 24, 2019 at 7:00 PM at LEFRAK CONCERT HALL!

I would like to give a hearty Ya-sheh Koach to our dear member IRA CHAZAN for making it possible for HHBJC to host the successful Israel Bonds Community Breakfast that was very well attended. The Guest Speaker was STEPHEN FLATOW, father of Alisa who was murdered by Palestinian terrorists in 1995 and the author of "A Father's Story, My Fight For Justice". His words were riveting and powerful and brought tears to our eyes through his emotional account of what happened to his beloved daughter. His devotion to the Jewish people and the State of Israel is truly abounding and steadfast.

G'MAR CHATIMA TOVA and CHAG SAMEACH!

See you in Shul.
Cantorially always, with love,
Cantor Sol Zim

Life After Retirement

The Growing Pro-Israel
Evangelicals in America

Good news! Pro-American/Friends of Jewish Zionism in the Holy Land emerging in America as a proud voice calling for respect-not-defamation, love-not-hate, support-not-ceaseless- boycott & delegitimization for America's best friend in the middle Israel!

Shalom, friends at HBJC! Do you recall the name of the individual whom President Trump called to offer the first benediction at the historic opening of the U.S. Embassy in Jerusalem last year? A distinguished pro-Israel member of the Rabbinical Assembly? A high-ranking Beduin sheik? A Greek Orthodox priest from Jerusalem?

Not at all! Our president chose John Haggee, the mega-church pastor, founder and spiritual leader of CUFI, (Christians United For Israel, a six million member San Antonio Evangelical power group) urging all Americans to embrace G-D'S Biblically chosen newly reborn Jewish state, Medinat Yisrael!

From CUFI's 50,000 sq. foot national Center's powerful radio and TV studios in Texas, its eight major networks, 162 independent TV stations, 51 radio stations, 150 telephone Prayer-Partners preach in more than in 190 nations world wide that:

- 1) The U.S. government must and will freeze all funds to the PA unless it immediately stop its despicable

"Pay For Slay" compensation to families of incarcerated or slain Arab terrorists;

- 2) UNRA , as CUFI has advised Pres. Trump, should no longer receive U.S. funds for providing cooked text books to thousands of Palestinian Arab children inciting them to become Jihadi terrorists, killers of Jews, annihilators of Israel;
- 3) Radical Islam promotes the universal genocide of Jews and the ultimate submission of all other freedom-loving communities to sharia law...or annihilation;
- 4) Post-college millennials, in particular, must be taught to love and respect Jews, Judaism and to embrace the one and only Jewish state, Israel;
- 5) CUFI is dedicated to bring in tens of millions of fellow Christians into an effective solid support group for Medinat Yisrael;
- 6) The Golan Heights is Israeli national territory and should be immediately annexed to the State of Israel.

For further info hot off the press, check out the impactful cover story of this rising, highly vocal Christian pro-Zionist mega-group in the May 24th edition of the Jerusalem Post magazine, entitled ; "The Sleeping Giant of Christian Zionism has Awoken!". In our current era of rising anti-semitism (including, in of all places, the once sacrosanct bipartisan hallways of the U.S. Congress!) this new rising wave of Christian "philo-semitism" is welcome, indeed! Read Mike Evans' books on Israel's phenomenal achievements despite despicable enemies. He is a committed Christian whose respect for Israel is compelling!

Where do you stand, my friend? What do you call for?

Rabbi Dr. Hirsch Joseph Simckes, Bet Shemesh.

P.S. - For those who worry about possible conversionary motivations in CUFI and other Pro-Zionist Christian groups, vist the new Friends of Zion Museum in central Jerusalem. New York, Chicago, Miami and Los Angeles should have such a Christian built, designed, funded and maintained museum in their cities. Petition CUFI to build such a power house pro-Israel museum there too!
